CLASS PROPHECY

Dear Diary,

After working hard all day at the Blair Hospital, I came home unaware that I had a big surprise in store for me. Patty Odom, an old school chum, who is now the editor of a large and powerful newspaper, The New York Times, paid me a visit.

After catching up on the news about each other, we began thinking of our old graduating class of '63. Many things have happened since that night ten years ago. We have all had our turn on the wheel of success.

Yes, those seniors of '63 have really gone places. You can tell by looking at this morning's newspaper just what a success they have been.

The headlines read: Judy Arrington Potts — Mrs. America of 1973. Reading further down, we find that her striking hairdo was created by Vicki Vaughn, the head of the American Hairdressing Association. Consulted on the hair style were Emma Oates and Annette Reasoner who have become well-known in the hair-styling field.

As we glance on down the front page, we see that Jimmy Mitchell and John Pedigo, both lawyers of much success, have won many cases lately. Helen Coffey, a court stenographer now, is frequently present during their cases.

As we look for the weather report, we notice that Danny Winfrey is the weatherman for the paper.

On the second page we see that the faces of Jimmy Cooper and Johnny Speight were among the new astronauts shaking hands with Chuck Hughes, who has just returned from space. Mary Fabri and David Bishop are the famous scientists who have been doing research on the new space ship.

Just a little further down the page, we notice an article about Jerry Carnahan, now a man of much distinction, presenting Bill Brown, a college grad, with an award.

On the theater page we see that Kay Medley and Elaine Cavender are now starring at the Pan-American Night Club which is owned by Maxie Sloan.

Sandy Hicks' biggest dream has come true. She is now a regular on the Red Skelton Show and Letha Harris now has the late show to emcee.

By the way, Jerry Eidson, Mike Turner, Richard Kennedy, Arthur Gower, and Glenn Latham have received many metals of honor for their years in the Navy.

Gayle Simmons is a private secretary for Eddie Howell and Bill Fallati, who are executives of John Dunn's department store for men — called Stax. Rachel Fox did all the interior decorating with the help of Lorraine Smith, Mary Eidson, and Gloria Anderson.

We also see that Jerry Stewart, Ronnie Tate, Ray Miller, and Russell Proctor have just completed their plans to build another skyscraper.

Gary Crecelius, who is the director of his own band, has just signed a contract with Raymond Bamman's recording company.

Loretta Rawls and Joyce Walker are advertising their latest dress designs at a fashion show in which Kay Meadow, Linda Carver, and Pat Bateman are modeling their famous designs.

There is also an advertisement for Larry Tate's dancing studio. Larry has taken over for Arthur Murray and is also a very available bachelor. Among his dancing instructors are Sharon McAfee, Mary Holleman, Sandra Deason, and Linda Knobel.

Our class also turned out a very capable physician, Delphia Willette. Her assistant and nurse, Elaine Blackwell, is almost having to turn away the patients!

Here is an advertisement from Milton Cavender and Ronnie Phelps' restaurant, the Black Derby, which is managed by Linda West and Annette Couch.

Ronnie Shaw has written another book, and Raymond Hinton is his new publisher. Judy Luther, a well-known book reviewer, praised Ronnie's book in her last article.

You might have guessed that Jennifer Polk would take Ann Landers' place and give advice to the lovelorn. Sandra Dunn and Beverly Ballard have taken over the teen page of our daily paper.

Joy Pegram and Tina Wells have decided to make a hit with all kids. They have just started a new kindergarten school.

Larry Wilson and Roger Bybee have a series of comics of their own. Their cartoons have gained nation-wide recognition.

A few of our old classmates were inspired to be teachers and are here attending the yearly convention for teachers. Judy White, Johnny Brown, and Brenda Gafford have not missed one in a long time. Richard Hooper was just recently elected to be president of the convention this year.

Over on the sports page we see that Steve Sprinkles, Dennis Donnell, and Jerry Franck have been very successful as high school football coaches. The new line-ups for the basketball season were given by Joyce Buchanan, Sheila Norris, and Frances Hutson, coaches of the three top girls' teams. Ronnie Bozza and Harold O'Brien hope to have another good season this year as coaches of high school basketball teams.

We also see that Kell Fuller and Charles Andrews are planning to enter the Indianapolis '500' with Larry Dixon and Ronnie Hampton as their mechanics.

Ray Coker, Carl Smith, Jacky Garrett, Hugh Ray, and Gary Wright are now owners of a very profitable finance company. John Strickland is the manager of this company.

Helen Breedlove has an advertisement in the paper about her new line of cosmetics. Gerald Sanders is her bookkeeper, and he is also a C. P. A. in his spare time.

Tommy Moore and Jimmy Howell are now the owners of their own chain of grocery stores. Linda Bennett, Faye Eldridge, Teddie Thomas, and Teresa Russell are managers of four of their stores.

On the society page we see that Sherrie Angell and Chere Boyd have come back to Nashville for a visit. They are living out West in their ultra-modern, suburban, ranch-type homes.

In almost any paper or magazine you pick up, you will find the smiling faces of Mike McElroy and Patty Smith who do advertisements for various companies.

Further on, we see that Bonnie Omohundro has given a tea for Carol Flatt. Shannon Hill, Joan Champion, Shirley Garrett, and Mary Ruth Webb got away from their families long enough to attend.

Marjorie Clifton, Linda Benson, Betty Whited Sanders, Irma Meeker, Martha Sue Shelton, Pat Byars, Betty Reese, and Bobbie Jane Herron have decided that careers are not for them and have settled down to being caretakers — of husbands.

Well, dear Diary, we have read the newspaper and recalled those good old days at M. H. S., and cried a little, and we wished for a minute that things were as they used to be. We're all grown up now, and we have all gone our separate ways. But we thank God that he gave us memories.

Good Night dear Diary,

Class Prophets — Doris Rediker, Patty Odom, Elaine Cavender, Helen Coffey.

THE SENIOR CLASS POEM

*Our Senior year is ending,
Like day fades into night;
Our hopes, dreams, and ambitions
Promise us a future bright.*

*Our strong ties will never be broken,
Our loyalty never die;
For always in our memory
We'll hold dear MAPLEWOOD HIGH.*

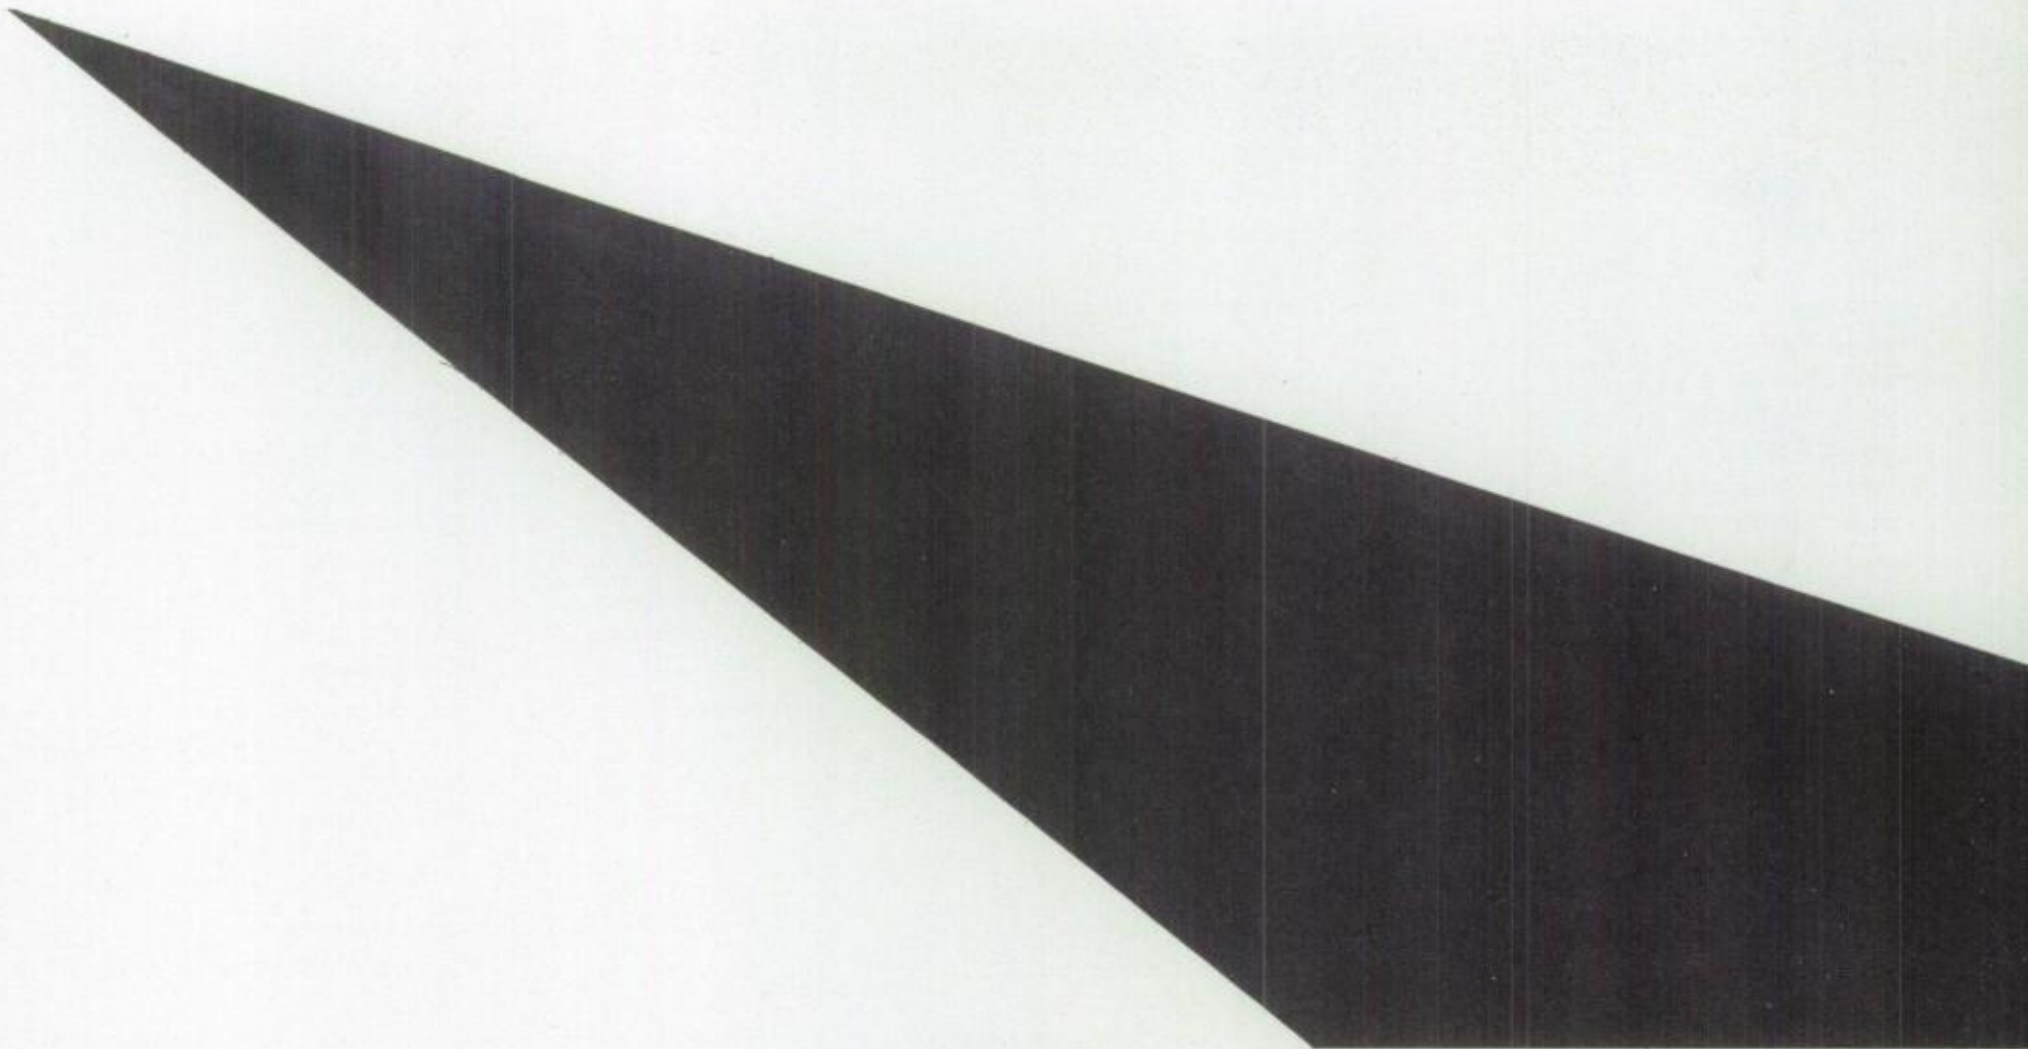

*The past four years have held their share
Of happiness and of sorrows;
The friendships that were here begun
Will last throughout tomorrows.*

*The way we cheered our teams on,
The spirit that prevailed
As we sang our Alma Mater,
"Maplewood, all hail."*

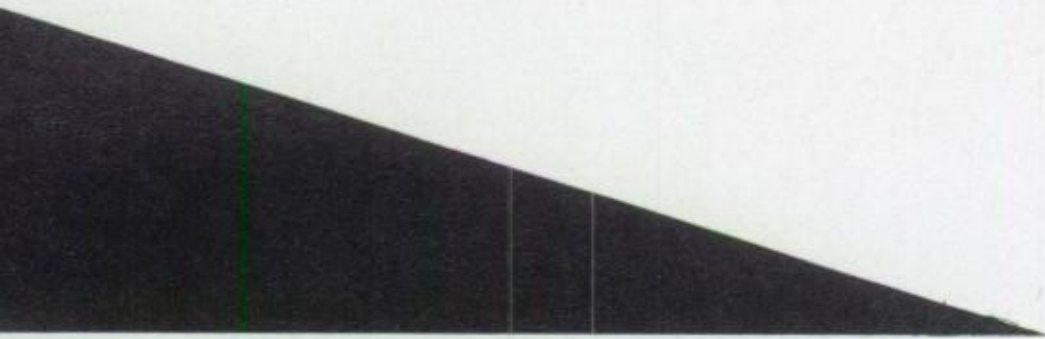

*The pure white and dark maroon
We will be true to thee
For no one will ever falter
In the class of '63.*

ADVISOR

Mr. White

The principles of the Bible serve as the foundation of Hi-Y work and are the inspirations which promote the Golden Rule as our members work with each other.

Our members must decide their budget, raise the money, plan the programs and do all jobs relative to a good operational unit.

Expanding the Resourcefulness of young men

mental physical spiritual

Our Club has a team in the Y-Basketball League, uses the pool and exercise facilities, and engages in camping activities, such as one weekend last fall in the Smoky Mountains along with a thirteen mile hike to Mount Keppel and Mount LeConte.

The advisor does not direct our club, but it is his job to help any officer at any job to be better. It is a job of leadership rather than control.

Our club stands for service to our community. At Christmas we took gifts to a local nursing home. Last spring two members worked at repairing and cleaning in a slum area of our city. Our club donated $58 to World Service.

Speak up you DUMMY!

My horse always wins.

Wanna' play dolls?

Come on and dance.

What do I do now?

My dog eats Friskies.

Where's my mommy?

I'd rather do it myself.

Never thought it would be like this.

Twins are always double trouble.
